Welcome to Stallance

Directions

From Tamar Bridge, take A38 towards Liskeard-Trewelefoot roundabout (about 10 miles), turn left and follow signs to Looe. On arrival at Looe, go over bridge dividing East & West Looe and turn immediately left to Hannafore (1km). Pass Hannafore Point Hotel and after 300 metres, you will see tennis courts -- the Crescent is immediately behind them and Stallance is in the middle of the Crescent. The parking and way into the house is up Portuan Road and the garage and parking is on the left with a path down to the back door.

Keys and Contact

Our next door neighbours (to the east) are Don and Rita Roper. They kindly look after the keys and the house and are very helpful. Their house is Penforde. Please contact them well in advance to co-ordinate your arrival. Their telephone number is 01503-262977.

Facilities

The area is designated as an area of outstanding beauty so there are many wonderful walks. Tennis courts are just in front of the house, the beach is 50 metres, the Bowls Club and Putting Green are 200m away and Looe has a fishing harbour and a safe beach. Shark fishing and day boat fishing trips as well as glass bottom boat trips and other water sports are easy to arrange. There are frequent buses and a tourist office in East Looe.

Places to visit (less than 45 minutes in the car)

Lanhydrock House (NT) and Cothole House (NT) are great, as are the Eden Project, Lost Garden of Heligan, Restormal Castle, Polperro, Fowey and Bodmin Moor.

Pubs and Restaurants

The nearest pub is the Jolly Sailor in West Looe just 10 minutes down the hill behind the fire station. The Sea Kitchen is just below the Hannafore Point Hotel five minutes walk away, whilst East Looe is well served with pubs and restaurants, including The Old Sail Loft, wood-fired pizza and a popular Thai Restaurant

Times of Arrival and Departure
